The facts.

Our service network.
Our ability to provide local knowledge and response is unmatched.

24 hours, 365 days, in every time zone.

A strategic regional office network.

In 350 ports around the world, on-the-spot help and local expertise is always available to members, and to the masters of their ships, from a combination of our offices and Club correspondents.

On-the-spot help

The UK P&I Club is one of the largest mutual marine protection and indemnity organisations. We insure around 185 million tonnes of owned and chartered ships from more than 50 countries. Our broad experience, size, coverage and service provide members with unparalleled specialist skills and expertise, developed to a level of sophistication seldom seen in our field.

Our strategic hubs

Based in Bermuda, with a branch in Tokyo, we also have a network of regional offices in London, New Jersey and Hong Kong through Thomas Miller. Our managers have a further network of local offices in the Isle of Man, Piraeus, San Francisco, Shanghai and Singapore.

Club correspondents

Our correspondents work with us to make sure that interruption to members' trading is minimised and claims incidents are dealt with quickly and competently. Our correspondents are chosen for their local expertise, experience and effectiveness.
