List of Correspondents 2025

This document provides a list of the contact details of the Club's correspondents network. Whilst every effort has been made to ensure that this document is correct, details can and do change throughout the course of the year. We recommend you download 'Correspondent Connect' (see below) or use the Find a Correspondent look up on the Club's website.

The Club's correspondent network

The Club's correspondents are available to assist masters, owners and the Club itself in dealing with any claims or problems with which the Club might be concerned. These correspondents are listed in full by country. Where a country is home to more than one correspondent location or port, these locations are also listed. An index of all correspondent locations is provided at the back of the List of Correspondents. The Club's correspondent network is managed by Neil Beckwith, the Correspondent Manager. Any queries or comments on the operation of the Club's correspondent network should be addressed to Neil at the address shown below. Neil is assisted by Karen Hennessy who should be contacted if any of the details contained in this book are incorrect or require any amendment. Please contact Karen as shown below. Please copy your messages to the Correspondents Team email address: correspondents.team@thomasmiller.com.
