An insight into transport law and insurance

A practical course for the non-insurance specialist

“An insight into transport law and insurance” is a practical, extensive four day course for the non-insurance specialist.

- Places are limited – priority given to Members
- Mixture of group work, presentations and case studies
- Opportunity to mix with others working in the marine and transport environment and Club contacts
- Wide programme of social activities
- Course to be held at the central London offices of Thomas Miller.

Who should attend

This training course is aimed at executives and managerial staff who are in the early stages of their careers and those who do not have specialist insurance and claims experience. It is designed for executives new to the industry but it is also suitable for those who wish to broaden or refresh their knowledge.

Continuing Professional Development

This course counts towards Continuing Professional Development (CPD) hours. Each hour of the course is equivalent to one CPD hour.
