UK P&I Club appoints EMEA Regional Director

The UK P&I Club continues to strengthen its presence in Europe, Middle East and Africa Region, with the announcement that Susanne Murphy has been appointed EMEA Regional Director.

Susanne joined Thomas Miller in 1995 following a Master's degree in Marine Law. Susanne has extensive experience in the region; she was Syndicate Manager for LS2 for a number of years and worked particularly closely with the Club's German Members.

Susanne moved into the Senior Management team of the UK Defence Club in 2009 and is Deputy Club Manager; she will continue to perform this role fully, in addition to her Regional Director responsibilities. Responsibility for the Club's Greek members remains with the Greek Regional Director, Daniel Evans.

Susanne's appointment signals the Club's continued commitment to the region and its Members. Hugo Wynn-Williams, Chief Executive Officer said, "I am extremely pleased Susanne has taken this key role. Her experience, knowledge and approach will be an invaluable asset to our European Team."
